Raiderettes 32 J.F. 18

The ACHS Raiderettes climbed over the .500 mark boosting their record to 6-5 with a 32-18 drubbing of Jefferson Forest High School last Friday on the ACHS floor.

Annette Carter and Susan Godsey provided the offensive punch with 9 and 8 points, respectively followed closely by Susan Handy (6) annd Johnna Belter (4).

The J.F. girls shot a cold 13% (7 of 55) from the floor but made 4 of 7 charity tosses for 57%.

The Raiderettes made 12 of 52 attempts from the field (24%) and 8 of 21 from the line (38%).

Raiderettes in Middle of District Standings

First place is a toss-up between Rustburg (12-0) and Amherst (12-1) and last place is a toss-up between Brookville (1-12) and Jefferson Forest (1-12) but third through seventh is a horse race with the Appomattox Raiderettes right in the middle. The Gretna Hens (7-5) are currently in third, followed by William Campbell (7-6), Appomattox (6-5), Liberty (5-7) and Altavista (4-8).

The Raiderettes travel to Gretna Wednesday, Feb. 7, will be at home in a game with undefeated Rustburg, Fri., Feb. 9, play at Amherst, Tues., Feb. 13 and close out the regular season Fri., Feb. 16 at home against Brookville.

District tournament will be played the week of Feb. 19.

Raider Jayvees Win Two Games

The Appomattox Jayvee basketball team brought their season record to 7 - 6 with a pair of wins during the week.

After a squeaker at Altavista which the Baby Raiders won 60 - 59, the team traveled to Jefferson Forest Thursday and played, probably, their best game of the season defeating the Cavaliers 62 - 42.

Coach Jim Crawford could not single out any of his players as outstanding in the Altavista game, rather he thought the outcome was the result of a team effort in which every player saw action.

Earnest Daye with 19 points and Marvin Johnson with 18 points led the Raiderettes to victory over Jefferson Forest.

According to Crawford, the Jayvees are ready and confident in preparing for the final three games of the season and he would especially like to see a full gym for the last game when the Raiders play host to Amherst at the Middle School, Tuesday at 4:30. The Lancers are undefeated, but Crawford thinks his troops are ready to pull an upset and a large crowd would help.

A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds.

Nelson and Raiders Split Double-Header

By Tamara Nash

On Thursday, Feb. 1, the 8th grade Raiders took on the Nelson 8th graders at the Middle School gym for the second time this season.

Opposed by a lot of height, the Raiders never let the game get out of hand. The first quarter score was 9-8 in favor of Nelson but Nelson scored 12 in the second quarter to make it Nelson - 21, Raiders - 14 at the half.

The 8th graders never seemed to find the momentum they needed to win and the final score was Nelson 37-28. High scorers for Appomattox were Kevin Ferguson and Jeff Miller, each with 7. Rick Caldwell and Mike Williams had 6 apiece, and Norman Turner had 2.

In the second match-up of the day against Nelson's 7th graders, the Raiders had complete control from the opening tip-off. Leading 6-4 in the first quarter, the Raiders took an 11-8 lead to the locker room. Scoring 15 points from the charity line helped the Raiders to a 35-16 lead.

Alan Edmonds led the Raiders with 9, Jody Williams had 8, and Grey Mayberry had 6. Tim Bennett had 4 and Derwin Harvey added 3. James Beaty and Blair Smith each sunk 1 for 2 points and Mark Drinkard sunk a free throw.

Band Boosters

The ACHS Band Boosters will be selling jewelry on February 9 at the home basketball game between Appomattox and Rustburg.

A display table will be at the entrance to the gym before the game and during the half time. The jewelry is suitable for boys and girls and all pieces are priced at $3.00 and under.

The jewelry can be purchased at this time (no ordering is necessary) and will be nice gifts for Valentine's Day.

All proceeds of the sell will go towards the purchase of new uniforms for the Marching Band and for new instruments.

Raiders Best Two Out of Three

By Tamara Nash

Tuesday night, January 30, the Varsity Raiders took on the Colonels from Altavista at the Raider gym. Altavista took an early lead 12-4 in the first quarter and the Raiders failed to pick up enough momentum to narrow the lead. At the half, it was 20-11, Altavista. In the second half, the Raiders had 14 and 16 point quarters but Altavista had 17 and 18 point quarters to win the game 55-41.

Terry Woods was high scorer with 12 and Larry Kelso had 11. Joe Fraley sunk 6 points worth, while Shane Abernathy had 4. Tony Hancock went for 3, Arthur Haskins and Gus Paulette had 2 each to total the Raiders' 57 Appo. - Godsey, 8; V. Smith, 0; Carter, 4; Belter, 0; Handy, 14; D. Smith, 2; Robinson, 2.

Alta. Wallace, 8; Woodruff, 2; Haskins, 6; Matherly, 6; Moss, 10; Burgess, 0; Cook, 3.

The Raiderettes could manage only 6 points in the first half while Altavista had 15. The Raiderettes fought back the second half outscoring the Colonettes 24-20. The Raiderettes came with 2 points but could never recover from their 1st half slump.

The loss dropped the Raiderettes to 4-5 record in the District and upped Altavista to 4-7.

RAIDERETTES WHIP BROOKVILLE

Appomattox outscored Brookville in three out of four quarters to win, 43-34 on the Queen Bees court Jan. 31. The Raiderettes pulled ahead in the first quarter and kept that lead with a halftime score of 29-18. Brookville's shooting percentage of 40% from the floor topped the Raiderettes' 27%, but good defensive action kept the Queen Bees from shooting.

The Raiderettes' showed tremendous effort on defense, with a great deal of steals. They were coming out of no where and intercepting seemingly good passes from the Bees.

High scorer for Appomatox was Annette Carter with 19 points and Brookville's Debbie Keys scored 20. The win boosted our record to 5-5 and dropped the Queen Bees to 1-11.

Appo.	16	13	5	9	-43

ALTAVISTA BEATS RAIDERETTES

The Raiderettes were defeated 35-30 in a game agtinst Altavista Colonelettes, Jan. 30 on their home court.

Appomattox's shooting percentage from the floor was 26% (12 for 46) and from the foul line, 38% (6 for 16). Altavista was 33% (14 for 87) from the floor and 47% (7 for 15) from the line.

Scoring honors went to Appomattox's Susan Handy with 14 and Susan Godsey with 8. Cybil Moss scored 10 for the winners.
